Terms and Conditions:

- Booths will be open to the public for the date & hours which the Festival has been advertised. Under no circumstance will the booth close during the Festival hours without consulting the Festival Coordinator or Chairman.
- I will be responsible for my own property and liability insurance. Hamilton Greek Fest and Panagia Greek-Canadian Community of Hamilton and District are not responsible for any equipment or personal property left on site by a Vendor. While there will be general security patrolling the Event site, vendors are responsible for the security of all of their personal property.
- Each vendor is expected and agrees to maintain the allotted space in a professional, clean and safe manner and to remove all related garbage and debris, on a regular basis to the garbage disposal facilities provided. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing, booth displays will be confined to the allocated contracted space. Final assignments of booth spaces will be at the discretion of the Event Organizers and we reserve the right to reassign space assigned to a vendor.
- Sharing or subletting of space is absolutely prohibited. This agreement cannot be altered, changed, modified or otherwise transferred by either party without consent of both parties and shall not be considered a joint venture or partnership between vendors and the sponsoring organization.
- The Event Organizers reserve the right to refuse the selling or giving away of any articles, services, products or printed items that are deemed objectionable and/or offensive by the Chair and/or
